

PLANS

drawn by~

Samuel Chandler Crafts,

"Born in Woodstock, Conn., Oct. 6, 1768, son of Col. Ebenezer Crafts; graduated at Harvard University in 1790; in 1791 settled in Craftsbury and was the Clerk of that town, 1799 until March, 1829, thirty years; Delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1793, being the youngest member in that body, and again in 1829, and was its President; Representative of Craftsbury in the General Assembly, 1796, 1800, 1801, 1803, and 1805; Clerk of the House 1798 and 1799; Councillor 1809 until 1813, and again in 1825 and 1826; Assistant Judge of Orleans County Court 1800 until 1810; Chief Judge 1810 until Dec. 1816, and again 1825 until 1828; Clerk of the Courts 1836 until 1838; Register of Probate 1796 until 1815; Member of Congress 1817 until March, 1825; Governor 1828 until 1831; United States Senator Dec., 1842 until Mar. 3, 1843; and Presidential Elector in 1840.

The book of Plans, now deposited in the Craftsbury Academy Library, was copied, March 1910, by F.H. Dewart, Burlington, Vt.
Civ. Engineer.

Saml C. Crafts

Index

Albany, alias Lutterloh,
Avery's Gore (in Franklin County)
Barton, alias Providence
Brighton, alias Random
Brownington
Brunswick
Cabot
Calais
Coventry
Craftsbury, alias Minden
Derby
Dewey's Gore (See Peacham)
East Haven
Eden
Elmore
Glover
Goshen (in Addison County)
Goshen Gore No. 1, alias Stannard
Goshen Gore No. 2, alias Plainfield
Granby
Greensboro
Groton
Hardwick
Harris's Gore
Holland
Hyde Park
Irasburgh
Jay, alias Carthage or Wyllys
Johnson
Kellyvale, alias Lowell
Lyndon
Minehead, alias Bloomfield
Morgan
Morristown
Navy, alias Charleston
Newark
Newport, alias Dunbarsboro
Peacham and Dewey's Gore
Salem
Sheffield
Sutton
Troy, alias Missisquoi
Victory
Walden
Wenlock
Westfield
Westmore
Wolcott
Woodbury